PRE CLASSICAL SCHOOL (DEMONOLOGICAL THEORY)

- 17-18th century
- Religion was at the peak level
- No scientific explanation
- Evil power influence
- Lose the sense of morality

Criticism Treatment - Torture

CLASSICAL SCHOOL (FREE WILL THEORY)

- 18th century
- Supported by “Beccaria”
- Rejected Pre-Classical school’s theory
- Based upon free will concept (Commit Crime)
- Punishment should be according to crime not more not less.
- Focused on crime only not on criminal

Criticism Ignored the criminal differences like first time offender or habitual offender.

NEO CLASSICAL SCHOOL

- Upgraded version of classical school
- Focused to understand the facts, circumstances, mental state of the offender
- Categorized as first offender, habitual offender, minor, insane, idiot etc.
- Punishment should be as per the category of the offender

Criticism:- This school focused on punishment
